

NATIVE PERENNIALS

Blazing Star, Button

Liatris aspera

Native. Herbaceous perennial grows 2 to 3 ft tall and spreads 1 to 1.5 ft. Prefers average to dry soils. Stalks grow from basal tufts of rough, very narrow, lance shaped leaves. Button Blazing star blooms later than the other Liatris species, usually in late summer to fall.

Photo Credit: USDA-NRCS Plants Database

© Thomas G. Barnes

Thomas G. Barnes